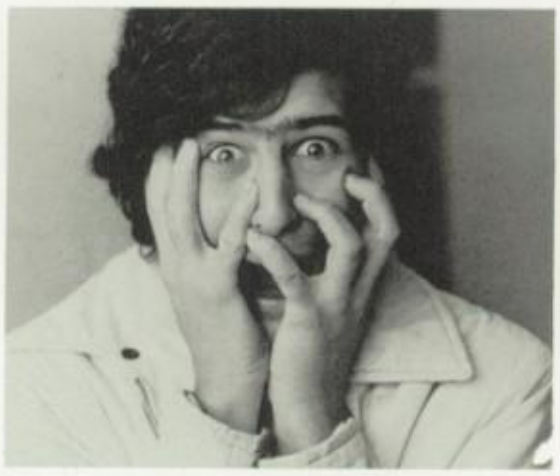
Twenty years from now I'll be living in a Long Island Suburban house that looks like the other twenty on the block. Every day I'll come home from my accounting firm in New York City on the commuter packed trains of the Long Island Railroad. My overweight, cholesterol-ridden body constantly at war with my aggravated ulcer.



I'll come home to my nagging J.A.P. wife and two children whose mouths are plated with two thousand dollars worth of metal apiece. Only kidding, in twenty years, I'll be God.

Twenty or thirty years from now I'll look back and laugh at it all. Can you imagine riding in a school bus that was always twenty or thirty minutes late during inclement weather? My son now leaves the house at 7:43 and at 7:45, he is already in school and ready for his first class. These magnetic overhead trams that travel on compressed air are really revolutionary!

Gone are the days when my teeth would chatter and my lips would freeze to the mouthpiece of my trombone, as our football team played in sub-zero degree weather. The football field is now encased in a retractable dome, and the temperature is thermo-electrically controlled. With it all, one thing remains unchanged: The standing of Woodlands' Football Team.

Woodlands wins basketball title

Woodlands High School, rallying from a 12-point deficit, captured the Section 1 B-C Open Basketball title by Saturday defeating Rye Neck of Mamaroneck, 63-58, at the Westchester County Center in White Plains.

Not until guard Jim Robertson, the game's most valuable player, made three "We didn't think they would 58 seconds though," said Woodlands basketball Neck its Mike Del Val, after his Falcons on, the free throws by Robinson. The F then went into a stall and ran the down to 0:14. Robinson was sent foul line twice in seven seconds, an one each time.

Rye Neck had one last hope, Yizar was fouled with five second However, the big man missed th ir record to 20-1. They next face Rye Neck, C champion, in the B-C Open title match Saturday at 4:30 p.m. in the County Center.

Hen Hud, meanwhile, lost more than the game. The lors, beaten in their first two outings of the season the Pleasantville Tournament, had won 18 in a row ore the Falcons stepped in.

In addition to losing the streak, the Sailors said dbye to coach Joe Ruyack, who will remain as the ool's athletic director. Ruyack head Sailors' p squad for 12 years.

the efforts of many dedicated juniors are being directed towards this cause.

"I had intended to tak a break from advising this year," explains Miss Gluckson who served as advisor to last year's graduating class, "However, the class seemed to be having difficulties in finding an advisor and seemed so anxious and enthusiastic about participating in a class effort, that I felt my experience could really benefit them." The students are certainly thankful for her services, without which organization would have been a far more difficult task.

The strong class enthusiasm is a marked but very welcome change from the usual apathy. "We are very ... amount of student in- aders adjust to aced in a totally here everyone is n they are. first suggested y Mrs. Spencer

ALMA MATER

Woodlands we greet you, our banners fly high,
Our name and our honor we'll never let die,
Symbol of courage, the Falcon in flight.
Hail to thee, Alma Mater, Hail to the green and white.

Deep of our strength from the ties we hold true,
This pledge of devotion we offer to you
Woodlands, forever your fame will be bright
Hail to thee, Alma Mater, hail to the green and white.

Join the people who've joined the Army.

Since the end of the draft a lot of young people are discovering a good place to invest their time. The Army.

They've come, over 375,000 strong, for things they may not have found anywhere else. Some came for the job training. Where else can you get your choice of hundreds of good jobs? Some, for the chance to travel. Where else can you get to go almost anywhere in the world?

Some came for the personal challenge. Where else can you get as much responsibility right out of high school? Some, for education. Where else can you get such a good head start on college? (With up to 75% of your tuition and fees paid for while you're in the Army.)

Some came for the financial rewards. Where else can you get a starting salary of $374. a month (before deductions) and a raise to $417. in just six months? (Plus free meals, housing, medical and dental care, a 30-day paid vacation every year, and low cost transportation to help you enjoy it.)

And some came for a different kind of reward. Where else can you do a service to yourself while you're being of service to your country?
